Re: SCHSSCA Winter Clinic (January 27-28, 2012)

The S.C. High School Soccer Coaches Association is looking forward to an exciting 2012 prep soccer season. To kick-off our season, we will be holding our 16th Annual SCHSSCA Winter Clinic January 27-28, 2012 at the Clarion Hotel Downtown in Columbia, SC.

The past few years, we have averaged more than 100 boys and girls prep coaches in attendance. We have once again partnered with the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) to supply us with top instructors and clinicians. The SCHSSCA Winter Clinic continues to grow as soccer's popularity continues to spread throughout the Palmetto State.

We are extending an invitation to you and your company to be a part of our clinic this year. The cost of a vendor table is $100. We are also asking that each participating vendor provide a door prize as well.

You will find a registration form enclosed with this letter or you can visit our website at www.scsoccer.com by clicking on Winter Clinic Information - http://www.scsoccer.com/wclinic_registration.htm.

Mail your completed registration form along with your check to:
